Hallelujah (Easter version):                  A crown of thorns placed on His head                  He knew that He would soon be dead                  He said did you forget me Father did you?                  They nailed Him to a wooden cross                  Soon all the world would feel the loss                  Of Christ the King before His Hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  He hung His head and prepared to die                  Then lifted His face up to the sky                  Said I am coming home now Father to you                  A reed which held His final sip                  Was gently lifted to his lips                  He drank His last and gave His soul to glory                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  The soldier who had used his sword                  To pierce the body of our Lord                  Said truly this is Jesus Christ our Savior                  He looked with fear upon his sword                  Then turned to face his Christ and Lord                  Fell to his knees crying Hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah	Took from his head the thorny crown                  And wrapped him in a linen gown                  And laid him down to rest inside the tomb                  The holes in his hands, his feet and side                  Now in our hearts we know he died                  To save us from ourselves oh hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  Three days went by again they came                  To move the stone to bless the slain                  With oil and spice anointing hallelujah                  But as they went to move the stone                  They saw that they were not alone                  But Jesus Christ has risen Hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah                  Hallelujah, hallelujah
